Numb. 7823.

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Saturday July 14. to Tuesday July 17. 1739.

Toplitz, July 11, N. S.

THE King and Queen of Poland having fixed the 7th Inſtant for their Departure from Dreſden for this Place, the foreign Miniſters went to Court the 6th to wiſh their Majeſties a good Journey and Benefit by uſing the Waters here: On which Occaſion Mr. Villers, Envoy Extraordinary from the King of Great Britain, having received Permiſſion from his Court to make a Tour to England, for ſettling his private Affairs, took Leave of their Majeſties. The 7th in the Morning the King and Queen ſet out from Dreſden, and arrived here that Evening. They were received at the Frontier of Bohemia, on the Part of the Emperour, by the Count de Clari, grand Huntſman of the Kingdom of Bohemia, and Lord of Toplitz. The King was attended by the Count de Bruhl his chief Miniſter, and the Queen by the Steward of her Houſhold Count Wratiſlaw, who is alſo the Emperour's Ambaſſador. On the 8th the Count de Clari was brought to Court by the Chamberlain Count Fleming, in one of the King's Coaches, and had Audiences of their Majeſties, by whom he was graciouſly received: and was reconducted to his Houſe with the ſame Ceremony. He return'd afterwards to Court, and had the Honour to dine at the King's Table with other Perſons of Diſtinction. On the 9th the Marqueſs Malaſpina, Miniſter Plenipotentiary from the King of the two Sicilies, came hither from Dreſden. And that Day a great Number of Perſons of Quality of both Sexes had the Honour to dine at their Majeſties Table; and at the drinking of every Health, Drums were beat, Trumpets ſounded, and Cannon fired.

Vienna, July 11. Our lateſt Advices from the Imperial Army commanded by Felt-Marſhal Count Wallis, give the following Particulars by way of Journal. On the 18th of laſt Month Count Neiperg General of the Artillery, who commands in the Bannat of Temeſwaer, arrived in the Camp which was then at Semlin; the next Day a great Council of War was held for ſettling the Operations in this Campaign; and Count Neiperg ſet out on his Return to Arrath, where his Body of Forces have their Rendezvous. The 20th, at giving out the Word, it was order'd that we ſhould hold ourſelves in Readineſs to march. The 21ſt a Battallion of the Regiment of Marulli arrived in the Camp. General Palavicini arrived at Belgrade from Vienna, with the ſix new Ships of War, which make the Number of the Flotilla 14 Ships. The 22d a Battallion of Seckendorf came to the Camp from Segedin; arrived there alſo the Lieutenant Felt-Marſhal Baron Wittorff, with the Regiment of Cuiraſſiers of Charles Palfi, and that of Dragoons of Preiſſing. The 25th we were joyned in the Camp by a Battallion of the Bavarian Regiment of Preiſſing, which had been garriſon'd at Segedin. The 26th the Prince of Saxe-Hildsbourghauſen came to the Camp, and at giving out the Word, it was order'd that the whole Army ſhould make ready to march and enter a new Camp mark'd out above Merova; whereupon the Reveille was beat at Midnight, and the 27th at Break of Day we march'd through Belgrade, and into the Camp at Merova; where the Army form'd two Lines, one without the great Line of Belgrade, and the other within it, the Right Wing to the Save, the Left to the Danube. The 28th arrived Baron Sehr General of the Horſe. On the 29th arrived Prince Charles of Lorrain, and Felt-Marſhal Count Styrum; came into the Camp alſo the two Regiments of Dragoons of Savoy and d'Ollone, and a Battallion of Bavarian Auxiliaries. The 30th a ſtrong Party was ſent out to get Intelligence of the Enemy, who are ſaid to draw their chief Strength together at Jagodina. The two Lines of the Army being divided by the great Line of Belgrade, a proper Number of Men were ſet to work to open a Communication, and at each Brigade one or two Apertures were made, in order that on Occaſion of an Attack, the two Lines may ſuccour each other as the Caſe may require. On the 2d Inſtant arrived ſome Auxiliary Troops of Bavarians, and the Regiment of Munſter was hourly expected. The 3d, ſome Horſe and Foot were ſent out to Forage, which were ſurprized by a Party of the Enemy, who took ſome of their Carts and Horſes.

Baron Sehr, who commands the Horſe, is promoted to the Rank of Felt-Marſhal. Count Wallis continues ſtill with the main Army in the Lines at Merova; where there were no Advices of the Motions of the Turkiſh Army. Count Neiperg continues at Arrath with a Body of 20000 Men; and the Prince of Lobkowits, who commands in Tranſylvania, has poſted great Part of his Forces at the Porta Ferrea.

On the 4th Inſtant the Emperor and Empreſs went to take the Diverſion of Hunting in the Neighbourhood of Burgerſtorf, where they were met by the Elector and Electreſs of Bavaria, with the Electoral Prince their Son: And after about two Hours Converſation they parted, their Imperial Majeſties returning to the Palace Favorita, and the Elector and Electreſs with the Prince their Son to Melck; in order to their Return to Munich.

Whitehall, July 17.

His Majeſty has been pleaſed to make the following Promotion of General Officers in his Army, viz. Field Marſhals. Lord Viſcount Shannon, Marqueſs de Montandre. Generals of Foot. Sir Charles Wills, Thomas Whetham, Joſeph Sabine. Generals of Horſe. William Evans, George Wade. Lieutenants General. George Preſton, Albert Borgard, Francis Columbine, Richard Francks, Charles Churchill, William Barrell, Jaſper Clayton, Piercy Kirke, Gervais Parker, James Tyrrell, Edmund Fielding, John Peter Desbordes, William